STAGE BOAT RACES

Midsummer Regatta of Boat Club Is Big Success—Several Exciting Finishes.

The first of the season's regattas of the Old Dominion Boat Club, the midsummer regatta, was given Saturday afternoon on the river in front of the club house at the foot of Duke street. Crowds of members of the club and invited guests thronged the upper and lower porches of the club and between the different events the ladies' auxiliary served refreshments and an orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

The closest race was the canoe fours, in which the crew stroked by Dr. Ashton finished but one length ahead of that stroked by Ashby. Another exciting race was the double outrigger affair, in which the winners, Pohl and Spofford, finished by a short length and a quarter. The canoe tilting furnished the most merriment of the evening

The nine events staged in Saturday afternoon's regatta were as follows:

Single canoes—Wingate, first; J. T. Ashton, second; Byrne, third, and Ashby, fourth.

Single outrigger—Pohl, first; Curtin, second; Spofford, third.

Double canoes— Francis and Byrne, first; Ashton and Washington, second.

Double outrigger—Pohl and Spofford, first; Summers and Curtin, second.

Canoe fours—Ashton, Dyson, Francis, and Byrne, first; Reardon McKenna, Wingate and Ashby, second.

Canoe tilting—First contest, Pohl and McKenna won two out of three falls from Ashby and Ashton; second contest, Pohl and McKenna won two out of three from Reardon and Byrne

Swimming race—Curtin first and Ashby second.

Canoe sailing race—Francis and Crump first, and Dyson and Byrne, second.

An exhibition in life-saving work was given by George R. Dickson, president of the Independent Life-saving Corps of the American Red Cross of Washington, and Miss Camille Desio, also of Washington.

Miss Desio and Mr. Dickson illustrated different methods of breaking the usual grips obtained by downing persons and the different methods of carrying unconscious persons through the water. Miss Desio obtained second place July 4 in the life rescue competitions staged in Washington.

The judges of the contest were George E. Warfield, Capt. Albert Bryan, A. G. Uhler, L. E. Uhler, and C. Aubrey Callahan. Other officials of the race were: Alfred Moss, starter; E. E. Carver, referee; J. Sidney Douglas, float officer, and Carl Mueller, captain of crews.

A dance was held later in the evening, the boat club reception room being gaily decorated for the occasion with Japanese lanterns, flags, and pennants. Patriotic airs were played by the orchestra towards the close of the evening. A number of members from the Fort Myer reserve officers' training camp were present.

The boat club's regular annual regatta will probably be held late next month, when competition will be furnished with outside crews.

To Defy Dry Law

Saloonkeepers in Prince George County, Md., intend to defy the new Maryland law compelling them to close up on September 1.

The Maryland legislature passed the law when it convened to consider war measures, but it made no provision to refund license money. The saloon keepers of the county had had their licenses paid up to May 1, 1918.

"Unless a portion of our license money is refunded," said G. W. Cave, proprietor of the Palo Alto Hotel, "the State cannot legally close us up, and we intend to fight such a course. We will keep our hotels open, and if we are arrested we will take the case to the highest courts."

MUST CLEAN UP GRASS

Police Now Notifying Occupants of Houses That Unsightly Growths Must be Removed.

According to annual custom, the members of the police force are notifying occupants of house in the city to remove grass and other growths from their sidewalks and gutters. The city law makes it obligatory upon the renters for occupiers of houses to keep the sidewalks and gutters clear of grass or weeds, under penalty.

It would seem that those interested should not wait for an officer to call their attention to neglect in this matter, yet many pay no attention to the law until forced to comply with it.

The Civic League several years ago attempted to impress all people in the community of the importance of keeping their premises tidy, and prizes were offered those who could present the cleanest yards. This organization made crusades against grass in gutters or upon pavements, as well as trash (old paper, etc.,) found on streets or in front of houses.

Alexandria in recent years has had many squares of improved pavements constructed, and the good work is still going on. Allowing rank growths to flourish, or trash or rubbish to appear upon the same is to condemned.

While the good book does not tell us that cleanliness is godliness, as many suppose, there is nothing that appeals to strangers more than tidy pavements and sidewalks. It is hoped that all concerned will comply with the law, so that nothing in the way of a nuisance will be found upon or near the premises of any one.

Charlie Chaplin Tonight.

In "The Immigrant' at the Richmond tonight, Charlie Chaplin comes across with about five big, spontaneous splashes of laughter and a tidal wave of giggles. In the latest Mutual Chaplin we get a new, and, if possible, funnier idea of the famous Chaplin walk. This happens when the boat rolls. In fact, the rolling of the boat furnishes Charlie with opportunities for laughmaking all during the first reel. There is some uproariously funny stuff when the bunch of immigrants go to the mess-room for eats.

Holbrook Blinn will also be seen in "The Weakness of Man," a startling drma. If you think you have a big strong heart and strength to battle through life in a big way, or if life to you is even a greater problem than it was to David Spencer, do not fail to see "The Weakness of Man" —a story that is full of the tang and flavor of the world's greatest city, softened by a romantic touch of the "tall timber" country.

He said he was unable to get out until the train arrived at Alexandria and had nothing to eat during the trip as he did not care for tomatoes. He said if the car had been loaded with watermelons it would have been different. Fortunately for him there was a bucket of water in the car. Had the car not have been opened at the Potomac yards he might have been taken still further north. He was furnished with food and said if he could get work would remain here.

POWDER MAGAZINE BLOWS UP

Nine Killed and Many Hurt in Explosion at Mare Island Navy Yard —Houses Destroyed.

Vallejo, Cal., July 9.—The black powder magazine at the south end of Mare Island Navy Yard blew up today. At least nine were killed and forty injured.

Workmen declare that nearly all the houses used as residences by workmen and officers in the immediate vicinity of the magazine were destroyed or badly shattered.

Ambulances have been going back and forth from the main part of the navy yard to the scene of the explosion. It is impossible to get details because of the strict censorship which was established by the Navy Department at the beginning of the hostilities with Germany and which is still in effect.

The magazine is located at the extreme southern end of the navy yard, directly across the straits from South Vallejo. More than 100 men have been employed there.

A few minutes after the explosion, all the naval officers at Mare Island and about 10,000 marines and other recruits were hurried to the scene to fight the fire which was expected to result.

BAN ON SUNDAY BALL

Maryland Official Will Not Even Permit Game for Charity.

Hagerstown, Md., July 9.—"There will be no Sunday baseball in Hagerstown," said State's Attorney Omer T. Kaylor, yesterday. He stated that the State could not permit even the exhibition game of baseball here between the Baltimore Orioles and the Hagerstown Blue Ridge League Club, for which arrangments were making, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross fund.

State's Attorne Kaylor said that while there may not be much opposition to one exhibition game here on Sunday, for some charitable purpose, yet it would mean an entering wedge for Sunday baseball in Hagerstown, and that it would not be allowed.

The official stated that as long as the laws are on the statute books he proposed to see a reasonable enforcement of them. "Any attempt to play Sunday baseball here will probably be met with arrests and fines," said the State's Attorney.

NEGROES HOLD UP COUPLE

Escort Goes for Ransom and Brings Police to Rescue Girl.

Chester, Pa., July 9.—Strolling about a roadway leading to Crozer Park, Margaret Ewing, 18 years of age, of Parkmount, and Leroy Brown, of this city, were accosted by six negroes, one of whom flashed a police badge, and said the couple were under arrest for trespassing on private property. One said that Brown could win the girl's release and save her from being sent to jail by passing over $3 to each man. Brown pleaded he had no money, but assured the negroes that he could obtain some cash from a friend, who resided near by.

Instead of hunting up the money, Brown informed Patrolman McCaffery. Several officers were dispatched from police headquarters in the police patrol. They found the girl in a corn-field near by, where, she claims, she was dragged by the men.

The police arrested George Mitchell and Brith Pollick, negroes, and they were identified by Brown.

EXCITEMENT IN STREET

Soldier Alleged to Have Offended Negress Arrested by Several of Her Friends.

Considerable excitement was caused on south Royal street and later at Prince and Fairfax streets about half past seven oclock yesterday evening by several negroes taking into custody a soldier. The blacks had bound the soldier and were in the act of conducting him to the station house when a number of other men in uniform rushed to his rescue, took him from the negroes, placed him in an automobile and whisked him away.

The negroes, after having their prisoner taken from them, were wrothy, and many soldiers soon gathered which caused no little alarm, as it was feared a race riot would follow. People at this time were running from every direction toward the intersection of Prince and Fairfax street, which was congested with men, women and children, most of whom had no idea what had brought them together.

Chief Goods, who was some distance away, boarded an automobile and was soon upon the scene with several officers, and the crowd was subsequently scattered.

It is alleged that the soldier had approached a colored woman and used insulting language towards her. Her husband became incensed and other negroes arriving on the scene, they took it upon themselves to arrest the soldier. The latter's companions, however, came upon the scene and as stated above released the captive.

During last night a number of soldiers were found on south Pitt street endeavoring to locate the home of the negro who had made the arrest. Chief Goods with several officers appeared and scattered the gathering.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS

Proprietress of Disorderly House and Inmates Taken in Raid at Early Hour Sunday Morning.

Sergeant Wilkinson and Officers Bell, Rawlett, Roland and Snellings at an early hour Sunday morning made a descent upon a house on the south side of Prince street, near Fairfax, and arrested the proprietress, Rose Hamilton, and fourteen others, male and females, who were found therein. Two bottles of whisky were found upon the kitchen floor. Three of the women and three of the men left collateral for their appearance in the Police Court this morning, but they failed to appear and forfeited the same.

The investigation of the case occupied most of the time of the Police Court this morning. It was shown that the house has long borne the reputation of being disorderly, and the owner has served notice upon the occupants to vacate immediately.

The proprietress of the place was fined $50 and the men and women before the bar were assessed $5 each for disorderly conduct.

One of the women and a man taken in the raid, and who had been released upon leaving collateral, were found by Officers Roland and Henderson occupying a room in a house in another section of the city at an early hour this morning. They were re-arrested and fined $10 each.

Several other cases of minor importance were disposed of.

RUSHING WORK AT QUANTICO.

Marine Training Camp, With Accommodations for 6,500 Men, Ready by August 1.

The marine training camp at Quantico, Va, consisting of approximately 250 buildings, with accommodations for 6,500 men, will be ready for occupancy by August 1, according to present prospects.

Major Seth Williams, of the marine corps, said yesterday that the buildings are nearly completed, and 2,000 men can be accommodated now. The camp includes barracks, mess halls, powerhouse, base hospital and other buidings.

Only fifty men will be quartered in each building, as a precaution against possible spread of contagious diseases.

It also was stated yesterday that the Port Royal, S. C., camp will be prepared within a week to accommodate 9,000 men. All buildings are completed.

Passengers Tossed About Like Peas In a Pod During Descent of 30-Foot Embankment.

Wilmington, Del., July 9.—Fifteen perosns were hurt, several of them seriously, and many others were bruised and shaken yesterday morning about 11 oclock when a passenger train on the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, due in this city at 11:30, jumped the track a short distance above the station at Granogue. The locomotive and the smoking car, the first coach of the train, rolled down a 30-foot embankment, turning over several times in the descent. The second car was derailed and one end hung over the top of the steep bank, but did not tumble down. The cause of the accident, according to the local officials of the railroad, has not been determined.

SERMONS ON CONSERVATION.

In accordance with the request of Food Commissioner Hoover, ministers of the gospel throughout the country yesterday delivered special sermons on food conservation. The pastors in Alexandria complied with the request and many practical suggestions were made by them.

The Good Shepherd, after having miraculously fed over five thousands perosns, commanded the fragments to be gathered that nothing be lost, and these words from the Gospel of John were taken as the text for most of the discourses.

One Alexandria minister in his discourse alluded to the fact that conservation might be inaugurated in the church, as in many places there are more houses of worship than are actually needed. He said in a certain mountain town of about five hundred inhabitants there are four churches with an average attendance of about twenty-five in each. He suggested that were these weak congregations to come together and form one church better results would follow.

While listening to the above suggestion some hearers were cast into a soliloquoy concerning our own city. Alexandria has at present thirty-nine churches of all denominations, white and colored, and the good work of multiplying the same is still going on.

It is said that between fifty and sixty thousand dollars are spent annually in maintaining the churches of this city.

Some over-zealous people dream that starting new churches is a work of the Spirit. Paul, in one of his letters, tells us that sects are works of the flesh.

It is said that there were thirty thousand gods and goddesses in Greece in the times of Hesiod. The Pantheon was so congested that it became necessary to enact a law making it a capital offense for any one to introduce a new deity among the Hellenes. Hence when Paul appeared on Mar's Hill he took care not to introduce a new god, but directed the attention of the Athenians to the altar of one (the unknown god) with which they were acquainted. Conservation should not be concentrated upon food alone, but upon every other unnecessary expenditure, as the minister referred to above suggested.

LASCIVIOUS CONDUCT.

As will be seen elsewhere, the police early yesterday morning made a descent upon a certain nest of iniquity in a residental section of the city. Women and men were found cohabiting within a square and a half of the station house and in locality where such procedures were not to be expected. Residents of the section have long had their attention directed to the questionable nature of the house, and during the past year the place was raided and the proprietress made to leave the city.

A young man and a young woman who were found occupying the same room yesterday morning were taken in the dragnet and conducted to the station house. They left collateral for their appearance in the Police Court, but at an early hour this morning they were found together in a comparatively new and modern house and in a more fashionable residential section of the city. They were rearrested and this morning fined ten dollars each. The proprietor of the house was fined fifty dollars.

Several years ago what was known as the "red light district" was abolished. Most of the lasciviousness which was carried on in Alexandria had been concentrated in the far-eastern section of the city. It was suggested at the time that while the motives of those engaged in this crusade were good, the infection would be scattered throughout the city, as has been the case in Washington and other cities where questionable resorts have been closed. The forecast has been fulfilled to the letter.

We have no apologies to make for people who refuse to live decently and in order. But the fact remains that there are so-called "dirty camps" even at camp meetings, and it is unreasonable to suppose that a city of fifteen or sixteen thousand inhabitants can exist without having within its bounds people of licentious instincts. During the investigation of the case referred to above it was shown that two women who were in the house are comparative strangers hereabouts. One had come here from a Valley town after leaving her husband, and another had drifted to Alexandria from a county on the Potomac. These are some of many who, after it becomes too hot for them elsewhere, turn their feet towards Alexandria.

EXCITEMENT YESTERDAY EVE

Attention was directed by the Gazette to the orderly behavior and gentlemanly deportment of the many soldiers who visit this city daily. Most of the uniformed men come here late in the day or early in the night, and they move among us as they should, orderly and quietly. An incident, however, late yesterday shows that too much caution cannot be exercised by soldiers who come to the city, as an occurrence on south Royal street between seven and eight oclock came near precipitating serious trouble. It is said that a soldier made an extraordinary proposal to a colored woman which so exasperated her husband that he and others of his race attempted to arrest the alleged offender. This action brought many soldiers to the rescue of their companion in arms and for a time trouble seemed imminent. The man who was charged with causing the friction was placed in an automobile and was soon far from the scene. The negroes, however, seemed disposed to continue the disorder, and had not the chief of police with several officers appeared at an opportune time and dispersed the gathering there is no telling what might have resulted.

During our civil war soldiers and negroes often fought in the streets, the square on Duke street, between Fairfax and Royal, having on one occasion been a battle ground. Such scenes might be repeated and as soldiers were said later in the night to be seeking the home of the negro who attempted to make the arrest, the police department should be on the alert to nip disorders in the bud.

HOLLWEG'S NEXT SPEECH

There are many speculations concerning the spirit of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's next utterances in the German Reichstag. While it is impossible to forecast his speech, it may be reasonably supposed that he will add but little to what he has said on other occasions. The Washington Post probably sums up what we may expect from this Teuton war lord. Our contemporary says it is hardly likely that the speech of the chancellor, if made at all, will be anything more than a repetition of the generalities which have been made in the past. It will be mainly for home consumption. It may draw a picture of German arms victorious yet tolerant and still willing to be generous to vanquished democracy; yet even though it may buoy the declining spirits of the German people, it will have the same old hollow sound to the rest of the world.

Not until the ground of truth is plowed in Germany, not until the people are fully informed with reference to the purpose of the allies and the actual military conditions of Germany, can there be any chance of peace. When the truth is known in Germany the German government government will be reorganized and peace will be possible. Until then the world will watch the drama wherein the kaiser, through his mouthpiece, tries to save himself from the wrath of his own people.

EVERYBODY IS INVITED

To Clip as Well as Knit for the Sailors and Marines in Uncle Sam's Navy—Every Lady Can Help.

Mount Vernon Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Alexandria, which has undertaken the work of assisting the Navy League of the United States in looking after the comfort of the members of the navy, is distributing the following circular regarding the work:

The comforts committee of the Navy League of the United States was organized to supplement the standard outfit of the sailor and marine with knitted woolen garments.

Primarily, these garments were designed to keep warm the bodies of those exposed to the rigors of even summer nights at sea, but they had a far deeper significance in that they kept warm the recollections of home, of mother and of sister, of sweethearts and wives, for each garment was fashioned by loving hands whose loved ones were braving the dangers of the deep and the chances of battle in sustaining their country's answer to the challenge of savage despotism. With each garment went that beautiful appeal to the God of the boundless wave "For those in peril on the sea."

It is proposed to further supplement the comfort of the sailor and marine by adding to his material as well as bodily comfort, and to this end the assistance of our community is solicited in the gathering of clippings from newspapers, magazines, illustrated periodicals, in fact, anything that will interest and entertain our officers, sailors and marines when not at the gun or torpedo. A few minutes a day with scissors and the morning papers (especially the Sunday papers), will make this scheme one of the greatest of the many relief projects that the war has engendered.

The Navy League will furnish the envelopes in which to place the clippings and while individual efforts are encouraged, it is recommended that clubs be formed and the daily clippings collected by some one member and forwarded once a week to the comforts committee of the Navy League, where they will be distributed proportionately to every ship in the navy and company of marines. Especial care will be taken of envelopes addressed to individual officers or men, to see that the are sent to their proper destination. This can only be done by those acquainted with the whereabouts of men and ships—information not given to the public but within the knowledge of the Navy League.

It is recommended that stories from magazines be separated from the main body which contains so much superfluous weight in the way of advertising matter, the edges stitched and possibly bound with brown paper to further protect it. A man can easily thrust such a booklet in his jumper, when suddenly called to quarters, when the more bulky magazine would have to be thrown aside.

Articles on the current topics of the day, political,religious, scientific, sports, comic and pictures should make up the contribution. It is presumed that the censorship which editors of papers will have over their columns, will make it unnecessary to hesitate about cutting out anything that may be thought interesting but it is suggested that the "lighter vein" be sought rather than the serious. The magazine articles referred to in the preceding paragraph are most desired. No magazine or periodical is too old from which to tear a story. The stories from fashion journals and periodicals of that nature, are especially interesting.

CANADIAN BARS DOWN

Americans Can Now Enter or Leave Dominion Without Passports.

Ottawa, July 9.—One of the results of the participation of the United States in the war has been to banish for all times unnecessary immigration regulations in connection with Americans entering or leaving Canada, whether on business or pleasure bent.

Dr. W. J. Roche, Minister of the Interior in the Canadian Government, has announced that citizens of the United States need no passports to enter or leave the Dominion. American visitors, he said, always had been welcome in Canada, and they are doubly so now. Every resort would be made by officials at the border, this year particularly, to facilitate the interchange of passenger traffic between Canada and the United States. While Canadians between the ages of 18 and 25 require passports to leave the country, American tourists and business people are entering and leaving the country as freely as ever.

Men between 18 and 45 entering Canada from the United States on pleasure or business may obtain from the Canadian immigration inspector where they cross the border a card certifying that they are not ordinarily resident within Canada and this card will be accepted by any immigration inspector at the port through which such traveler returns to the United States, it is officially stated.

TWICE TRIED SUICIDE

President of Philadelphia Club Shot While Trying to Quiet Noisy Member.

Philadelphia, July 9.—While attempting to calm a life-long friend who was acting in a boisterous manner last night, in the James Stewart New Year's Association clubhouse, No. 1208 South Thirty-fifth street, John Moore, president of the organization, prominent in downtown politics and a messenger in the office of Receiver of Taxes Kendrick, was shot in the head and died an hour later in the Polyclinic Hospital.

John O'Brien, who fired the fatal shot, attempted to end his own life when he saw Moore prostrate on the floor of the clubhouse. Shaking with emotion, O'Brien placed the weapon against his temple and pulled the trigger. His hand shook with the action, however, and he received only a flesh wound. He was treated in the Polyclinic Hospital and then locked up in the Seventeenth district police station.

OPPOSED TO PICKETING.

Virginia Suffragettes Not in Sympathy With the Attempts to Gain Notoriety.

Mrs. B. B. Valentine, president of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, in an interview concerning the White House pickets, makes the following statement:

"The National American Woman Suffrage Association, of which the Virginia League is an affiliated member, and which comprises the great body of organized suffragists in the United States, has gone on record most emphatically as opposed to the picketing of the White House, and has in its official organ, "The Woman Citizen," and through its leaders, Dr. Anna Shaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, publicly condemned the recent banner peisodes, as unpatriotic and gravely injurious to the cause of woman suffrage.

The Equal Suffrage League concurs in this verdict, and deeply regrets that any group of men or women should at this time attempt to embarass the government. At the same time we wish to call attention to the fact that this isolated group of suffragists, calling themselves the National Woman's party, in no wise represents the great organized body of suffragists, and we ask that men and women deal fairly with the question, and refrain from condemning the suffrage movement as a whole, because of the folly of a handful of fanatics at the national capital."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Henry Field, grandson of the late Marshall Field, Chicago merchant and financier, died yesterday at the Presbyterian Hosital in New York where he was operated upon for an abscess on one of his lungs.

In a sermon last night, the Rev. D. H. Martin, D. D., pastor of Wesley Chapel, Washington, after branding traitors as the most "dangerous and contemptible of creatures," declared that every one of them "should be hung publicly, preferably in the Monument Grounds here."

Mistaken for a burglar as he climbed the rear fence at the home of a friend in Philadelphia to join a party, William Hess, 21 years old, was shot and killed by Policeman McKeown yesterday. Other policemen had to fight to save their brother patrolman from lynching at the hands of Hess' infuriated friends.

Cologne, one of the chief manufacturing cities of West Prussia, is under strict martial law because of fresh riots which occurred there Saturday. The outbreak was due to a reduction in the number of meat cards issued. Police and soldiers clarged the crowds and many persons were wounded.

Thirteen serious charges were flung at Director Joseph E. Ralph, of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, by Rev. E. Albert Cook, acting pastor of the Capitol Heights, D. C., Congregational Church, at his service last evening. To his previous charges of bad working conditions in the Bureau and excessive overtime work, Rev. Mr. Cook charged that Director Ralph had spent much time in making trips to Cuba, for his private gain, to help organize a plate printing plant that would compete with similar American industries.

Diving from a wharf at Rosebank Shore, Back River, near Baltimore, Frederick Heim, Jr., 19 years old, struck the sand bottom and broke his neck yesterday afternoon.

ANOTHER GERMAN RAID.

Thirty-Seven Persons Are Killed and 141 Injured in London.

London, July 9.—The second descent upon London by a squadron of airplanes was made Saturday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, when the business section of the metropolis was most crowded.

Although the German contingent was larger, more daring, more delibertive in its methods and descended much lower than on the visit of June 13, the number of killed and wounded was, according to the first official roll, roughly, one-third the previous casualty list. The destruction of property may have been greater, but that it is impossible to estimate.

Thirty-seven persons were killed in the air raid and 141 injured, it was officially announced. One enemy machine was brought down by the Royal Flying Corps.

TURKISH ARMY IN PLIGHT

Reported to be Suffering From Ravages of Epidemics.

Saloniki, July 9.—According to reliable advices from Asia Minor, the Turkish Army is in the most serious plight of any period of the war on account of the depletion of man power from the ravages of epidemics and from actual starvation as a result of the failure of the commissariat. All classes of the gendarmerie are being mobilized to fill the gaps.

It is said the spread of mutinies among Arab and Kurd troops has become so alarming that Evner Pasha the Turkish War Minister, is rushing to Mesopotamia in an effort to cope with the situation.

GERMANS IN A FIX

Crown Prince's Army Cannot Advance and Dare Not Retreat.

Paris, July 9.—Gen. Berthaut, contributing a remarkable article in the European edition of the New York Herald on the German offensive against the French, shows conclusively that the result of the last spring offensive has proved to be a capital victory for the French, as it has placed the Germans in so dangerous a position that they cannot safely remain where they are and yet are afraid to retreat. The latter course would inveitably precipitate political disturbances in Germany.

This, according to Gen. Berthaut, accounts for the desperate but unsuccessful efforts which the Germans are making to recover lost ground.

"The Germans are not making front attacks upon our excellent positions," says Gen. Berthaut.

"They are not attempting any forward drive. They still hold such positions as the forest of St. Gobain and the thicket of Nogent l'Abbaye, and their repeated efforts are made against places where they have lost must valuable ground. Every one of their attacks has cost them enormous losses.

"Is this the way to prepare a general offensive? No. Was it is in this manner that they launched their first offensive on the Yser or at Verdun, or like our own in Artois, Picardy and Champagne, or the most recent one by the English in Belgium?

"There is not the least doubt any longer that the German attacks have no other purpose in view than to recover important lost positions and nothing more."

Gen Berthaut shows that President Wilson aptly summed up the situation when he said. "The Germans cannot advance and dare not retreat."

MAY BE DISMISSED

Dissatisfaction with German Chancellor's Conduct of the W... Expressed by Politicans.

Zurich, July 9—A serious political crisis has arisen in Germany.

A Berlin telegram to the Koelnische Zeitung says it is probable the Kaiser will dismiss Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg.

The German government's semi-official mouthpiece, the Nord Deutche Allegemiene Zeitung, mentions Vice Chancellor Dr. Karl Helfferich, first German food dictator, as the most probable successor to Hollweg, should the latter fall.

A Reichstag crisis was provoked Saturday by a speech by Dr. Mathias Erzberger, leader of the Centrist (Catholic party, before the Reichstag's main committee. Dr. Erzberger expressed serious misgivings as to the general military and naval situation. He demanded a clear statement from the government regarding the Russian offensive and the situation on the Western front. He also demanded assurance that the U-boat war is really as efficacious as it is claimed to be.

The Kaiser had a long audience with Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg Saturday night. Afterwards the emperor received Field Marshal von Hindenburg, War Minister von Stein and Minister of Marine von Capelle.

The meeting of the Reichstag's main committee continued far into the night and was resumed today. The Frankfurter Zeitung says another attempt is afoot to bring about the downfall of the chancellor.

The Berliner Tageblatt says the Socialists and National Liberals are convinced the government must declare finally whether it wants a pan-German peace or a peace without annexations.

According to this paper, leading German politicians believe the present crisis can only be solved by the creation of a national ministry. It is uncertain, the Tageblatt adds, whether Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, can continue to hold the chancellorship in such a coalition ministry, but the paper regards it as certain that Admiral van Capelle will not retain the portfolio of the marine ministry.

The pan-German Deutscher Tageszeitung says: "The question at issue is whether we are going to continue our policy in accordance with the determination of the German people to conqueror or whether we will abandon our victorious arms and ruin the empire."

Berlin, July 9—Unless all present indications fail in the course of the next few days, the German empire is on the eve of a momentous, if not historical, parliamentary upheaval. Developments under the gilded dome of the reichstag building in the last 48 hours point squarely to a significant realignment of various factions in favor of sweeping electoral and parliamentary reforms, in spite of the present stubborn resistance of the reactionary old guard.

EMBARGO PROCLAMATION.

Check to Export of Foodstuffs to Neutrals Adjacent to Germany.

President Wilson yesterday issued his long expected embargo proclamation. It includes every basic commodity in the list of things that may be exported without the license of the Secretary of Commerce.

The President specifies every country in the world, allied, neutral and enemy, as countries to which the embargoed commodities may not be shipped.

But it is to check the export of foodstuffs to neutrals adjacent to Germany that the proclamation is issued. The President is determined that no more sustenance shall reach our enemies through these mediums.

After July 15 none of these things may be shipped out of the United States without license from the Secretary of Commerce as executive officer of the Exports Council.

Coal, coke, fuel oils, kerosene and gasoline, including bunkers; food grains, flour and meal therefrom, fodder and feeds; meat and fats; pig iron, steel billets, ship plates, and structural shapes, scrap iron, and scrap steel; ferro-manganese, fertilizers, arms, ammunition and explosives.

The penalty for the violation of the President's embargo order is $10,000 fine or two years imprisonment and the forfeiture to the United States of the ship, equipment and cargo convicted of an effort to evade the embargo.

APPEAL TO SHIPPERS

Railway Company Asks Shippers to Assist It in Improving Freight Shipments.

Washington, July 9.—An appeal to shippers and consignees to "do their bit" towards improving the freight car supply by prompt loading and unloading at warehouses and side tracks has been issued by the Southern Railway System. It is headed: "Won't You Help Us Serve Our Country," and is as follows:

"Under existing war conditions the transportation of troops and of munitions and supplies for the Army and Navy and for our allies in Europe must take precedence over all other kinds of traffic.

"The railroads of the United States are performing their full duty to the Government and are striving, at the same time, to serve all those dependent upon them for transportation with the least possible delay.

"Drastic rules to secure the most efficient use of every available freight car are being enforced so far as conditions can be governed by the railroads.

"But there are delays beyond the control of the railroads.

"Shippers and consignees can 'Do their bit' and cut down the time used in loading and unloading cars at their warehouses and side tracks.

"Every hour counts.

"Cars should be loaded to their capacity.

"The transportation demands of the Government and of the American people call for co-operation to the fullest extent."

Quick Shipments Grades Guaranteed

SWEDEN AIDS GERMANY

Vast Shipments of Own Metals Replaced by U. S. Imports.

An official report just made to the American government showing the extent to which Sweden is furnishing supplies to Germany reveals that the central powers are receiving enormous quantities of materials that go directly into the manufacture of munitions. Iron ore shipments from Sweden to Germany, the report made to this government declares, have reached a total of 9,000,000 tons in the last two years, all of it the high grade required in production of fine steel. This, it is declared, represents an amount equal to Sweden's entire pre-war export.

In the first quarter of the present year, it is set forth, Sweden imported from the United States 16,000 tons of pig iron, while selling a great quantity of her own product to Germany. Her pig iron sales to Germany in two years, it is declared, have amounted to 250,000 tons.

In addition to this, it is asserted, she has shipped to Germany, 15,000 tons of ferro-silicon and ferro-manganese for hardening shells, together with large quantities or copper, zinc, manganese, sulphur and other ores.

Germany, the report declares, has optained from Sweden in two years fully 200,000 tons of wood pulp for use as a basis for cellulose, used instead of cotton for the manufacture of high explosives.

It is claimed Germany also has obtained from Swoden large quantities of ball bearings for use in the manunfacture of war vehicles and submarines.

The value of these shipments, the report declares, is at least $15,000,000.

THEFT AND PILLAGE

German Soldiers Becoming Rich From Spoils of War.

Charging that the German army is growing rich by systematically organized theft and pillage, the June issue of "Facts About the War." a bulletin of information published by the Paris chamber of commerce says:

"A pamphlet by Arnold Steinmann-Bucher, entitled 'The People's Fortune in Germany,' published at Stuttgart in 1916, gives significant particulars as to the profits that the soldiers of the kaiser are reaping from the war.

"We find statements made by the head managers of the Dresden post-office regarding the sums of money sent into Germany by soldiers at the front. One division of Saxon reserves forwarded, in September 1914, 10,000 post office orders amounting to 391,000 marks, and in October, 20,000 post office orders making a total of 800,000 marks.

"Calculating that a month's pay for a division can scarcely amount to over a hundred and fifty, or a hundred and sixty thousand marks, we may conclude that the wealth Mr. Steinmann-Bucher takes such pride in, has its principal source in systematically organized theft and pillage.

"It is in this way that the German army, under the benevolent eye of its chiefs, intends to reply to the partisans of a peace without indemnities."

EDICT AGAINST SPIRITUALISM

Pope Orders Catholics Not to Attend Any Seances.

New York, July 9.—Official opposition by the Roman Catholic Church to the growth of spiritualism through out the world, and orders to Catholics to attempt no communication with disembodied beings, whether good or evil, is the gist of a remarkable pronouncement by Pope Benedict, which became public here yesterday.

Members of the church are commanded not to attend seanaces, even "those apparently honorable and held through a sort of affectionate devotion."

A copy of the decree has reached the New York clergy in the Acta Apostolicae Sedis, the papal official bulletin, and will soon be communicated to the laity in special sermons or instructions.

TAKING HISTORIC CHIMES

Germans Stripping Belfrys in Northern France of Metal.

Inhabitants no longer have any doubt as to the fate of the bells and chimes of Northern France folstill inside the German lines have taken the road to German munitions factories.

All the churches of the region of the Oise and the Somme were stripped of everything they contained in the form of copper and brass before the occupying troops retired. There is no reason to suppose that those still inside the German line shave been spared.

These depredations are acutely felt in this region which has been the country of bells and chimes since Charlemagne generalized their use throughout the empire.

Inhabitants of this region who were deported to Germany before the retreat and have since been repatriated, bring news that the Germans have now attempted to regularize their rape of the bells by issuing a general requisition of all bells not dating as far back as the Middle Ages. Bells cast between 1400 and 1800 are spared only when they bear historical inscriptions or have otherwise an exceptional value historically or artistically. Since few of the bells of Northern France have the necessary antiquity to escape this regulation, it is assumed that all, or nearly all, of them have already been fired back upon French soil in the form of projectiles.

Abbe Lemire, mayor of Habenbrouck and deputy from the Department of the North has learned from a reliable source that the Germans are stripping the interesting Lille Museum of such objects of art as previously had not been sent to Germany. The Germans, it is learned from the same source, posted placards about the city exhorting the inhabitants to subscribe to the latest German war loan. No French people subscribed so far as known.

WANTS SOLOMON'S ISLAND.

U. S. Likely to Buy Second Site In Chesapeake Bay.

The Federal Government, in seeking to acquire Kent Island as a site for the $2,000,000 naval laboratory and a proving ground for the testing of big army and navy guns, is carrying out long-mapped out plans to make the Chesapeake Bay the centre of America's naval activities. These plans, it is stated, involve the expenditure of upward of $50,000,000.

Maryland will figure prominently in these developments. In addition to the acquisition of Kent Island, the Government has its eye on Solomons Island for a permanent Marine Corps training station and headquarters. This information was definitely imparted to Representative Linthicum, of Baltimore, a few days ago by naval officials. The plans also embrace the deepening and widening of sections of the Baltimore harbor so that naval colliers can easily reach the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad coal piers at Curtis Bay and those of the Western Maryland Railway at Port Covington. It is the idea of the naval officials to develop Baltimore as a coal port to augment Sewells and Pinners Point in the lower bay.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

In an open letter Judge Martin Williams, of Pearisburg, Giles Co., formally announces his withdrawal as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

As a result of a joy ride through the southern suburbs of Baltimore in a stolen automobile after an evening at a river resort, two men were killed and five others injured shortly after midnight last night when their machine skidded, crashed into a heavy telegraph pole and turned turtle. Three of the members of the "joy-riding party" were pinned under the overturned machine. Two of them had paid their lives for the night of pleasure, while the third was seriously injured. The other occupants of the illfated machine are under arrest on the charge of larceny of the automobile.

According to semiofficial reports, the Russian offensive is spreading to the north and south of Halicz, in eastern Galicia, which was virtually under the guns of Gen. Brusiloff when the advance of a year ago came to a standstill. Halicz is important as the key to Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, and is about 60 miles outheast of that city. Three armies now are engaged on a front of more than 30 miles along the Narayuvka river.

A frontier correspondent of the Handelsblad reports that five persons were killed and several houses were destroyed during the bombardment of the German city of Essen, home of the great Krupp works, on Friday night.

The Austrian premier, Dr. Seydler, according to Vienna dispatches, is conferring with the various Austrian party chiefs regarding the formation of a commission of 25 members to draft a new Austrian constitution. The Austrian chamber has refused to ratify the imperial decree suppressing trial by jury. The vote is regarded as equivalent to lack of confidence in the emperor.

Vienna dispatches say that disorders on a largle scale have broken out in the Marvian coal fields on account of food conditions. Troops summoned to suppress the outbreak were forced to fire, killing or wounding a number of the food rioters.

Horace L. Peed, 23 years old of Fonesville, is a prisoner patient at the Emergency Hospital, Washington, held for Westmoreland county authorities. Peed recently came to the hospital for treatment for injuries he says he received July 4 near his home. As soon as Peed is physically fit, he will be taken to Westmoreland county to face a charge of having killed William Cavanaugh, 19 years old, on the county road May 30, last. Reed is a blacksmith, and Cavanaugh, who worked on a farm near Fonesville, were both, it is alleged, paying attention to Miss Myrtle Carpenter, a pretty girl of 17, residing in the neighborhood. Cavanaugh having bested his rival and become the favorite of Miss Carpenter is said to have incurred the enmity of Peed. The night Cavanaugh was beaten to death in the county road he had accompanied Miss Carpenter to a school commencement and had taken the young woman to her home in his buggy.

CHINESE EMPEROR QUITS

Restoration of Manchu Dynasty Proves Shortlived.

London, July 9.—The abdication of Hsun Tung, the youthful Emperor who was placed on the throne of China only a week ago by General Chang Hsun, it is indicated by press dispatches received from Peking, following upon the defeat of the Imperialistic forces by republican troops at Lang Fang, south of Peking, and the desertion of many of Chang Hsung's soldiers. The Forbidden City virtually is hemmed in on all sides, and the Peking-Kalgan Railway, Chang Hsun's only means of escape northward, is in the hands of the Republicans who are holding Nankow Pass.
